Continents and oceans – 2

Refer to map of the world and find out the answers to the following questions:

1. If you have to go from Delhi to London can you go by land or do you have to cross any sea?

______________________________________________________________________________________

2. Which continent did you start from and to which continent did you go? Did you cross any ocean? Name it.

______________________________________________________________________________________
3. If you have to travel from Mumbai to New York, is it possible to go via a land route?

________________________________________________________________________

4. Trace the routes with your finger on the map.

________________________________________________________________________